#3 Nucci/Gooldy - 3 vs #9 Grabinski/Welch - 0

Under partly cloudy skies, Eric Gooldy would play this match by himself against Gary Grabinski and Lee Welch. Vinny Nucci wasn't around. Had something else to do. Eric had a good day in shooting his best score of the year. Gary would plod through a tough round at +3. The injured Lee Welch toughed one out for the team. In the end, it was a good day to be Eric Gooldy. Not so much for Lee and Gary.

#8 Hickel/Wallace - 3 vs #4 Pecorello/Daniels - 0

Gentleman Will Wallace would win 5 of the first 7 holes in beating Joe Pecorello and Dave Daniels. Despite a birdie on #12 by Joe, one of 7 for the day in the entire league, it wasn't to be for Joe and Dave today. You see, Will was playing without his partner, Rich Hickel. That was a break for all concerned. The jovial Will Wallace would be the champ today.

#15 Suppa/Girmonde, Jr. - 2 1/2 vs #16 Sadallah/Tripp - 1/2

Tony Suppa would win all 9 holes in beating former champions, John Sadallah and Dom Tripp. Tony's partner Dave Girmonde, Jr. was also not here. He was with Rich Hickel. Suppa was happy too. There was nothing over a 5 on his score card. The same can't be said for the losers. Both John and Dom had quite the cribbage hand with their scores.

#1 Bialak/Brown - 2 1/2 vs #6 D'Amico, Sr./D'Amico, Jr. - 1/2

John Bialak and Tim Brown would win 6 of nine holes in beating Team D'Amico. Nothing really exciting here but a birdie on #15 by the Mayor, and a birdie on #17 by sub Bryan Rondeau. Tim Brown shot his season best score in this match. Ditto for the mayor. Nothing else to report here.

#12 DeRiso/Gorea - 2 vs #19 Bunal/Hamlin - 1

Frank DeRiso and Greg would sweep the new guys, Chris Bunal and Dave Hamlin. It was a rough outing for rookie Dave Hamlin. Partner Chris Bunal had a good day for scoring purposes. On the winner's side, Frank DeRiso had a sub 40 round while his partner, Greg Gorea would chip in with a season best score. The season is still early...

#17 Garceau/Logue - 2 vs #14 Stern/Cahill - 1

Rookies Eric Garceau and Pete Logue would win this close match with a 2-1 victory over the Cahill/Stern duo. After 6 holes, the match was tied. I should remind you that that doesn't really matter. Pete Logue would win the final three holes and the match and winning the match is what counts.

#11 Berge/Zegarelli - 2 vs #20 Powers/Daviau - 1

Shane Berge and Nick Zegarelli would win this late match over Tom Powers and Mark Daviau. The newbies struggled from the beginning, each with three bad holes. Shane and Ziggy didn't set the world on fire either. It has to be the conditions I tell you. Tweak those scores a little to the better side and you have a whole new ball game for Tom and Mark. Just sayin...

#13 Girmonde, Sr./Girmonde - 2 vs #18 Albertina/
Albertina - 1

Sam and Dave would dispatch the new guys, Team Albertina, in dominating fashion. Sam and Dave would win the first five holes push on the sixth hole and win two of the final three holes. The Albertinas, nice guys, struggled from the onset. I sound like a broken record, the the final score is the only thing that matters here. Comin to ya on a dusty road good loving I got a truck load...I'm a soul man

#5 Blunt/Lubey - 2 vs #7 Seward/Cahill - 1

Newly minted team Taylor Made member Bill Blunt would lead Lance Lubey to victory over Russ Cahill and Bob Seward. Bill would shoot a season best 38 with the new gear. Lance Lubey didn't have a great day. But is was enough to win. Bob Seward and Russ Cahill would lead this match through four holes. At the end, they would win four of the holes and pushed three times. Pity we don't score that way any longer.

The 19th Hole...

The vote is in to either add two weeks to the season or not add two weeks. After tabulating the votes, The nays have it. The final tally was 15-8 in favor of moving on from adding two weeks to the season... While it seems that it's taking forever to clean up the course from a wet spring, the weather must cooperate and has yet to do so on a regular basis. It will get better out there...Since we are not adding weeks to the season, the Final Outing stays as is... The Yankees are special this year. I thought you might like to know that...Tiger playing well at the Memorial. He probably won't win, but he is tuning up for the US Open. Gary should know that...St Mary's golf tournament was held this past Sunday at Twin Ponds under rainy skies. It can't surprise you that it rained...Went to the 72 at the Aud this past Saturday night. Had a Chicken Sandwich, and a couple of drinks. So did my friend. The final tab?

$80.00 with tip. A little on the high side if you ask me...Does anybody recognize who is in the picture at the top of this newsletter? One of them you should know. It's George Kelley. He used to play in this league. Does anyone recognize who else is in the picture? I'll let you know next week...
