#8 Hickel/Wallace - 3 vs #4 Blunt/Lubey - 0

No one saw this coming. Rich Hickel and Will Wallace would dominate their opponents in winning 3-0. With six strokes in hand, the winners would maintain a six stroke lead through hole #14. Things began to unravel a little the next two holes. Rich Hickel would double bogey #16 to lose the hole and the lead was down to two. Sucking it up, Richie and Will would win the next hole and halve the last hole to win by three. They move on to face last year's runners-up, Team #2 Nemers and Banas.

#2 Nemers/Banas - 3 vs #17 Logue/Garceau - 0

Hell bent on righting the loss they endured in losing the finals last year, Don Nemers and Tim Banas would run Pete Logue and Eric Garceau out of town. The five strokes given to Team #17 were gone by the end of the third hole. From that point, Don Nemers would birdie holes #13 and #17, and Tim Banas would toss in a couple of pars. The lead would be nine at the end of this match. I've said it a million times...There's always next year.

#3 Nucci/Gooldy - 2 vs #15 Suppa/Girmonde - 1

Vinnie Nucci would birdie #10 and Eagle #14 to help his team to victory. The lead would be nine after Hole #12. They started with a seven stroke cushion. Dave Girmonde, Jr. would birdie #13 to win the hole and shave three strokes off the lead. Vinnie and Eric would win the next three holes to bring the lead back to nine. Then on #17, the world stopped turning as the winners would blow up the hole with a gross total of 15. Dave and Tony would play the hole at par, shaving seven strokes off the lead. All of a sudden, It didn't matter about the eagle or birdie for Vinnie. A two stroke lead with one hole remaining. The geese were not the only ones leaving droppings on the course. Vinnie and Eric would suck it up and hang on to win the match by one. Who's next?

#7 Cahill/Seward - 2 1/2 vs Cahill/Stern - 1/2

The lead for Cahill and Stern would evaporate after the second hole as they dropped all eight strokes. The third hole brought Russ Cahill and Bob Seward would share in enjoyment of the lead they would not relinquish. As the dust settled, these teams would the push on the last 4 holes. The only excitement here was when Bob Seward missed a putt on #18 and proceeded to launch his putter over a frantic Dave Stern, onto the hill on the side of the green. It took a few minutes to find the weapon.

The 19th Hole...

The Semi Finals in the playoffs begin this coming Wednesday with the following teams:

Team #8 Hickel/Wallace

Vs

Team #2 Nemers/Banas

Team #3 Nucci/Gooldy

Vs

Team #7 Cahill/Seward

These Teams are playing for the Finals to be held in an 18 hole match at Leatherstocking in Cooperstown, NY on Sunday September 15th. Funny thing...Three of the 4 teams in the playoffs this year were also in the playoffs last year. I thought you might like to know that tidbit of information... Some of you guys still haven't paid your dues. If you don't pay before Wednesday September 11, then YOUR final IS Wednesday September 11th...The score keeper for the score card for team #1 this week did a masterful job in writing the scores down...In the Department of Year long Skins, Hole #13 was the only hole available for a skin. Whod'a think that two guys would birdie the hole on the same day? Dave Girmonde, Jr hit the ball to the green and I putted for a birdie. Don Nemers was pin high to the left of the green. He chipped in. Now, I'm not sure but it could have been the other way around. Now, along comes Vinnie Nucci. He would bomb a drive on #14. He took his trusty 5 wood and hit a high soaring shot that landed softly on the green several feet away, a near Albatross. Being no Dave Girmonde,Jr., Vinnie promptly eagled the hole to now own the only season long skin with one week to go...Results for the Team Net Total Tournament for this week is listed below. $50 is going to the winning team.
