#15 Hubble/Clarke - 3 vs #7 Bialek/Brown - 0

The “Old Rookies” teach the Killer B’s a lesson last week by skunking them 3-0. The Killer B’s were in this match through 5 holes as they had 2-1-2 lead. Then they turned sad as the match would go the other way the final 4 holes losing those holes 0-2-2. Of course it didn’t help with 3 uncharacteristic double bogies for Mr. Bailek. Tim Brown played Tim Brown golf. It just didn’t work for them this week. For the “Old Rookies”, this was a very good win and stamps them as contenders in their first year of play in this league. James Clarke’s sub 40 round featured birdies on holes 14 and 17.

#4 Cahill/Stern - 3 vs #12 Hamlin/Bunal - 0

Pete Cahill and Dave Stern would rebound from the week before to win this match over Dave Hamlin and Chris Bunal. With Dave Hamlin playing by himself as his partner had work commitments. This would start as a close match. It would be 2-2-1 after 5 holes.. Pete and Stern would win 3 of the last 4 holes to win this match going away. A birdie on #17 by Pete highlighted this win.

#5 Lubey/Blunt - 3 vs #13 Sadallah/Tripp - 0

Perennial Title contenders Lance and Bill would throttle Team #13, who had been playing as contenders before this match. Lance and Bill were never in trouble as they would enjoy a 3-0-2 lead after 5, and would win the next three holes to put this match to bed. Bill Blunt would birdie the very hard 13th hole for a 2. John Sadallah played by himself as Dom Tripp had work commitments.

#8 Girmonde/Palmer - 3 vs #16 Wojtowycz/Heintz - 0

This match is all about Dave Girmonde, Jr. Dave would birdie holes 10, 12 and 14 in route to a 1 under 34. Along with partner Joe Palmer's 42, The winners would win all 9 holes in overwhelming the rookies, Team #16, Jarrett and Nick. The rookies must have been nervous playing the boss. Their scores indicated either they rolled over or were just not interested in playing this match.

#10 Girmonde/Girmonde - 3 vs #2 Niemers/Banas - 0

Title contenders Team Girmonde beat another Title contender, #2 Niemers and Banas, 3-0. It was close throughout. The score was tied after 5 holes, 2-2-1. Even though the losers would win 2 of the last 4 holes, they would lose total and ultimately the match. My friend Tim Banas would have a bad day with double bogies on holes 16 and 18. The boss, Dave Sr, finished his round going 7-7 on holes 17 and 18.

#1 Hickel/Wallace - 3 vs #9 Grabinski/Welch - 0

Defending Champs, Rich Hickel and Will Wallace would beat the Pro, Gary Grabinski. Lee Welch would not attend as he was fed up with Gary's putting. Gary would birdie holes 11 and 12. He also shot a 36. Not bad for someone who can't putt. The problem is his opponents, Richie and Willie, would both shoot under 40 as well. Along with the strokes, and there were 10 of them, Gary wasn't going anywhere. While Gary scored a 5-2-2 scorecard, he also spotted 10 shots to the defending champions. Poor sap...

#3 Nucci/Gooldy - 2 vs #11 Zegarelli/Berge - 1

Eric Gooldy is just now getting used to playing by himself as his partner continues to be AWOL. Eric would play a fine round by himself as he would beat Ziggy and Shane, 2-1. The once hot Ziggy had a pedestrian round while his partner played well. Eric would enjoy the help of 6 strokes that turned a gross 88 into a net 82 to beat the losers by 5 strokes and run home with the victory. Vinnie who?

#14 Logue/Cahill - 2 vs #6 D'Amico/D'Amico - 1

Pete Logue and Russ Cahill would win this match and 7 holes to beat team NYSE. All the Stock Exchange could muster was a push on holes 15 and 17. After that, nuthin'. Russ Cahill had a season best 39 while his partner, Pete Logue, would shoot a 45. Gene Jr, had a horrible day he posted several "others" on his card. He should of stayed and watch the bell ring to close the day on wall street. Gene, Sr. had an average day in shooting a 42. Nuthin great to report here.

The 19th Hole...

This week marks the halfway point for the season. Starting next week we will be posting who has a chance for playoff spots. We will take the top 8 teams. Everyone else will play something that is yet to be determined. Also, Next week is where Gary and I start to annoy those of you that have not paid your season dues... Speaking of Gary, he is working on putter 6 or 7 as he is fit to be tied about his putting...While it has been hot out there this year, we have had our share of rain...I'd like to announce where the final outing will be held this year but I can't, yet. That time is coming soon...It was great to watch baseball on TV again. I watched a whole game tonight and didn't fall asleep once...Hockey is next. I'm a Ranger fan, I don't mind telling you. A lot of people feel the same way. Can they go far into the playoffs? I hope so...Until next week...
